YouTube Upload Regulations & Guidelines

Important: Do not upload any TV shows, movies, music videos, music concerts, commercials or music without written permission unless they consist entirely of content you created yourself.

If you've recorded something from a DVD, videotaped your TV screen, or downloaded a video online, don't post it unless you have permission

Uploading these shows without written permission from the copyright holder may cause PCA to lose its uploading rights and membership with YouTube

If at any time PCA feels that copyright material has been uploaded to YouTube, PCA may ask the Producer for signed written permission from the copyright holder.

Failure to follow YouTube's Rules for upload can be cause for suspension and or expulsion of your PCA membership.

Unless otherwise notified, videos uploaded to YouTube are public; anyone can search for and view your content.

PCA will upload your video to the PCA YouTube Channel for $5.00, this will also include a notification through PCA's social media sites (Petaluma 360, Facebook, Twitter)

Please provide tags. Tags are keywords that describe videos. For example, a surfing video might be tagged with "surfing," "water," and "waves."
